SUMMARY: This document modifies and announces the effective date for the final rule published in the Federal Register on September 1, 1999, consolidating the current 31 Federal milk marketing orders into 11 orders and changes the Class I differentials contained therein. The Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2000, requires that the September 1 final rule be revised so that Class I milk is priced utilizing the Class I differentials contained in the proposed rule published on January 30, 1998, as corrected and modified through April 2, 1999. The Consolidated Appropriations Act also provides that the revised final rule be implemented on January 1, 2000.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The final rule published on September 1, 1999 (64 FR 47898) and delayed by the rule published October 5, 1999 (64 FR 53885), as amended in this rule is effective January 1, 2000.

Delay of Effective Date: Issued September 30, 1999; published October 5, 1999 (64 FR 53885).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2000, (P.L. 106-113, 115 Stat. 1501), signed into law on November 29, 1999, requires that the final rule published in the Federal Register on September 1, 1999 (64 FR 47898) consolidating the current 31 Federal milk marketing orders into 11 orders become effective on January 1, 2000, utilizing the Class I differentials contained in the proposed rule published on January 30, 1998 (63 FR 4802) as corrected and modified through April 2, 1999. A document issued on September 30, 1999, and published in the Federal Register on October 5, 1999 (64 FR 53885) delayed until further notice the October 1, 1999, effective date for consolidating the orders because of a temporary restraining order, issued by the U.S. District Court for the District of Vermont, which enjoined the Secretary of Agriculture from implementing the amendments consolidating the orders.

The Class I differentials required by the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2000, referred to as Option 1A-Location Specific Differentials, were published in the proposed rule on January 30, 1998 (63 FR 4802). These differentials were corrected in a docket published on February 25, 1998 (63 FR 9686). The final decision published on April 2, 1999 (64 FR 16026) discussed additional modifications made to the Option 1A differentials issued in the proposed rule. A correction to the final decision was published in the Federal Register on July 14, 1999 (64 FR 37892).

Further, the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2000, exempts the modification and implementation of this final rule from notice and hearing requirements of section 8c(3) of the Agriculture Adjustment Act (7 U.S.C. 608c(3)), reenacted with amendments by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 and the referendum provisions of the 1937 Act, the notice and comment provisions of section 553 of title 5, United States Code, and the statement of policy of the Secretary of Agriculture (36 FR 13804) relating to notices of proposed rulemaking and public participation in such rulemaking. The Act also exempts this final rule from the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. chapter 35). Lastly, the Consolidated Appropriations Act stated that implementation of this final rule is not to be subject to any decision, restraining order, or injunction issued by a United States court before the date of the enactment of the legislation.

Since the Consolidated Appropriations Act enacted into positive law the Secretary's final rule (with express amendments), the validity of the final rule does not depend on procedural or substantive administrative rulemaking requirements. Nonetheless, during the rulemaking process which resulted in the September 1, 1999, final rule consolidating and amending the Federal milk marketing orders in compliance with the 1996 Farm Bill (7 U.S.C. 7253) and the Omnibus Consolidated and Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act, 1999, P.L. 105-277, October 21, 1998, the Department considered and discussed all applicable regulatory decisionmaking requirements. These included Executive Order 12866, Executive Order 12988, the Regulatory Flexibility Act, the Paperwork Reduction Act, and other applicable requirements concerning the rulemaking. The Department prepared a regulatory impact analysis pertaining to the costs and benefits of the revised regulatory milk marketing structure. Based on its consideration and analysis of all pertinent information, the Department concluded that the economic impact would be minimal when compared to the total values in the Federal order system and in the U.S. The Department further found that this conclusion would also be true with the alternative pricing options which were considered during the rulemaking.

The Consolidated Appropriations Act requires that "the final rule shall take effect, and be implemented by the Secretary of Agriculture, on the first day of the first month beginning at least 30 days after the date of the enactment of this Act." It was enacted into law on November 29, 1999, therefore the amendments to the New England and other orders must become effective January 1, 2000. Further, the changes that result from these amendments will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration in the method of operation for handlers.

Accordingly, pursuant to the provisions of the Consolidated Appropriations Act for FY 2000, the final rule issued August 23, 1999, and published in the Federal Register on September 1, 1999, at 64 FR 47898, implementing the consolidated 11 Federal milk marketing orders is amended as specified herein and becomes effective on January 1, 2000.
